What You Were Saying About Mollydooker in 2008!

January

"Thank you so much for making great wine. I gave a six pack to my brother for Christmas. He said it was the best present ever!"

- Ron Henderson, VA

"My daughter turned us on to Mollydooker wines. When we first started drinking Mollydooker it was quite easy to find but once it caught on...it became impossible! I've had the Boxer, Two Left Feet and Blue Eyed Boy...very nice indeed. I look forward to the Velvet Glove. Kirsten tells me it's fabulous! Her restaurant had 3 of the 6 bottles released to St Croix!"

- Janice Fairhurst, MA

"I recently tasted and reviewed your Blue Eyed Boy 2006 Shiraz for Sante magazine. I found it to be full bodied, complex, and delicious with a brilliant long finish. I will be awarding it our Sante Gold Star for the upcoming issue."

- Doug Paulding, Sante Magazine

"I work in a liquor store in Vancouver, BC, Canada. I have to tell you that your wines here are represented by three of the most amazing guys in the business: Landmark Wines. I am very fortunate to have been able to buy some and sell lots. The demand here is incredible. Keep up the great work!"

- Sandi Smith, Canada

"The Velvet Glove is, without a doubt, the most incredible of wines. [We shared the bottle with another couple.] The wine elicited from my wife and the other couple's husband a simultaneous, unsolicited "WOW". The other couple's wife said that it was "... the best wine she had tasted... EVER!!!!"

- Kenneth Blair, FL

"Thank you very much for a wonderful product. One bottle of "The Boxer" was enough to convince me into buying a case. I liked it that much. It's possibly the best overall wine I've ever had. Congratulations to everyone there for their part in creating something magnificent."

- Bryce Aufrecht, CT

"What a wonderful, friendly newsletter. Between that and your sensational wines I have the distinct impression that you guys are great. Thank you for the spectacular wine."

- Michael McGannon, CA

My wife & I just had a bottle of 2006 Blue-Eyed Boy and we were just blown away by how much we enjoyed the wine. So I had to order some more and we plan to have a small Mollydooker tasting for some friends. - Ken & Jolene Mueller, Nevada

What can I say...the wine was absolutely incredible and the presence of Sparky, his knowledge, experience, and passion for his wine is a tremendous testimony to the quality that goes into each and every one of his bottles. And according to him, his wonderful wife Sarah is actually the ignition behind the blending master pieces they turn out! Amazing! - Tim Ahaus, Oregon

Congratulations on your 2006 Velvet Glove!!!! I had a bottle last night. It was a great surprise and pleasure to find a truly world class wine from So. Australia. I have been travelling and drinking wine there since 1992. - David Schuette, Texas

We were fortunate to meet Janet and have a tour of the Mollydooker winery last week. It was great. We tasted several wines from the vats and liked them all. Could you put us on the waiting list for these Mollydooker 07's? Thanks! - Tom and Nancy Patten, California

Some day Sparky, I hope to attend one of your tastings or better yet, visit your winery. You and Sarah are awesome. The success of your wine is unbelievable and you guys continue to hit winners. [I was recently poured a blind taste of Carnival of Love.] When I tasted this wine, my taste bud scale maxed out. This wine was absolutely pure heaven in a bottle. It showed its elegance in balance, nose and color. - Rusty Sly, California

I wanted to let you know just how much my husband and I are enjoying your wines. We tried a bottle of Two Left Feet in January and I ordered one of your party packs as soon as we got home. Of those twelve, we have now enjoyed 7 bottles. My husband keeps reminding me that we have plenty of other wines that we need to try, but I am truly hooked. Last week we celebrated our anniversary at Patina's in L.A. We took our bottle of Goosebumps not really knowing what to expect. Let's just say it was the perfect wine to help us celebrate our night. - Kathryn Wafer, California

Sarah, WOW WOW WOW, Teresa and I celebrated our 20th anniversary yesterday at Cafe Chibo. We brought the Velvet Glove and it was unbelievable. We gave the Chef and waitress a try and they were over the top happy. You and Sparky have just created so much fun for us with your spectacular wines. Thank you so much!!!! - John Nicholson, Florida

The Boxer is incredibly smooth, big, rich and mouth-filling throughout. As with the 2005 vintage this wine is again a great value. Truth be told I think the 2006 version of The Boxer is better than the 2005 version was. It strikes me as even bolder and more self-indulgent. As big and bold as this wine is it's possible to enjoy it on it's own. But for an even better experience pair it with a steak. - Gabe Sasso, Gabe's View wine blog

The flavor profile is reminiscent of The Boxer. However Blue Eyed Boy is bigger, bolder and richer than The Boxer with better acidity and balance. This wine is drinking very well right now but I'd expect it to improve and drink well for at least 10 years. - Gabe Sasso, Gabe's View wine blog

A big Australian shiraz! I made filet mignon stuffed with blue cheese and served with applewood smoked bacon mashed potatoes and sauteed mushrooms. It was all awesome- just a huge, intense wine, pretty much exactly what you'd expect a higher-end Australian shiraz to taste like. If I were rich, this would be my house wine. Yummy! - Stephanie Chockley

Just spent 5 days touring vineyards in Napa. Returned home and opened a Mollydooker. That is the sign of a true fan. - David Hulseberg, Illinois

Thank you for a fantastic (and educational) tasting at Woodfire Grill. My wife and I thoroughly enjoyed the evening and while Velvet Glove and Carnival of Love continue to drink unbelievably, I am so glad we got a case of the Blue Eyed Boy. It is an incredible shiraz, especially for the price! - Barry & Lori Baum, Georgia

Last night, my colleagues and I had a business dinner at one of our favorite local restaurants, Blue Bamboo, owned by Dennis Chan. I always enjoy talking wines with Dennis, as he has a very eclectic wine list, with many unique wines you don't typically find in this city. Of course, he mentions his great new find, Mollydooker, and that he met you last weekend! Small world, indeed! We enjoyed a couple of bottles of Blue Eyed Boy, which will most definitely be on my next order! - David Kight, Florida

I am a big MollyDooker fan and particularly like your cabs. Maitre D' may be the best Cab value in America! It's up there with some $100 Oakville/Rutherford cabs. - Sam Russell, Virginia

Thank you for offering your wines online. The Boxer is the very best wine for the price that I have ever had. I just ordered the Carnival of Love and cannot wait to try it. Being left-handed myself, I am thoroughly convinced that these wines taste even better to me than to my wife and friends, although their enjoyment seems to speak otherwise.

I was just able to pick up 16 more Blue Eyed Boy and 12 more Carnival Of Loves as well as Goosebumps for the first time. I am also happy to say I sold 3 bottles of Velvet Glove last week. Your wines are incredible!!! They have become a house favorite amongst the 400 other bottles we carry. Keep up the great work!

I was thinking how interesting it would be to do a "World Wine Dinner" with one wine from each Major Wine Producing Country that represents that Country's best, and of course dishes to match. Here's a small 7-course dinner:

Germany: 2001 Hermann Donnhoff Riesling Spatlese Niederhauser Hermannshohle - Artisan Cheese Course

US: 2002 Harlan - Wild Mushroom and Puff Pastry Tart

Spain: 1999 Pingus - Duck Confit, Black Olive Paperadelle, Tomato Concasse, and Chevre.

France: 1982 Latour - Chinois Lamb Chops with Risotto

Italy: 2001 Masseto - Warm Chocolate Brandy Cake

Austria: 2002 Alois Kracher #11 Welschriesling Trockenbeereauslese Nouvelle Vague - Georgia White Peach Tart

Australia: 2006 Mollydooker "Velvet Glove" - Ribeye Filet with Fingerling Potatos

- Barry Baum, Georgia

My 4 favorite wineries are Turley, Spottswoode, Linne Calodo, and Mollydooker. I don't need any others. I have tasted a lot of Australian wines. Yours' are absolutely world class - and the best of Australia that I have tasted. Feel free to quote me!

- David Matz, PhD, Delaware

My friends and I just finished my last bottle of Blue Eyed Boy and Goosebumps. What a blast we had!! I look forward to my new wines.

- Richard Majors, Florida

This wine smells so good I want to dab it behind my ears - I know for sure Bob would always want to be close to me.

- Gail Scanlon, re: partially fermented Home Block shiraz

Sparky, I have been a big fan for several years. I just wanted to share a quick story with you. We invited our closest pals to come spend a cold, winter weekend with us and snowboard and drink good wine, etc. We had been enjoying from my cellar of some of your delicious 2005 Boxer, but we had to try the Velvet Glove. What an amazing time we had. We are still emailing each other on how special that bottle and evening was. Keep up the good work. So happy for all your success with Mollydooker.

I'm the wine manager at Cache Road Liquor in Lawton, OK. We sell quite a bit of your wine and it also happens to be my personal favorite. We put you guys in one of our newsletters and I'm forwarding you the article so you know how much we here in Oklahoma love your wine.

Thank you for all Mollydooker did to help make last night a reality. The results from the inaugural Santa Clarita Valley Boys & Girls Club Wine Festival were tremendous. Please pass on to Sarah our thanks for such generous support for the kids. Because of what she and Sparky provided last night, they will always be thought of as heroes to the at-risk kids here in Valencia.

- Carl Kanowsky, California

I am anxiously awaiting availability of the Velvet Glove. [In the meantime,] Enchanted Path and Carnival of Love have been awesome, especially EP.

- Peter Downey, California

I cannot wait to be able to buy directly from you guys. I only have a couple cases left ;) and as I said finding any of your wine around here is difficult at best. Especially the $20 bottles!!!

- Daryle Yarab, Georgia

I first heard your names about 3 years ago. I was so happy to get my first allocation of 2005 Mollydooker wines. They were amazing! 2006 just continued that trend. I've probably drunk 3-4 cases so far and have a few more in my cellar. I can't wait until the 2007 Release. Fortunately, I have a friend who works at a local wine store that allows employees and their friend to clear the shelves before they ever get filled. (So far, Mollydooker has never gotten to the shelves in that store.) I personally have taken it upon myself to spread the word (and the taste) to those poor souls who couldn't find any in the local stores. It has made me a lot of friends. [This friend] refers to Mollydooker as the "Turley" of Australia - and I heartily agreed. [My wife & I] love your wines, your relaxed approach to drinking wines, and even the Mollydooker shake.

- David Matz, PhD, Delaware

"If God doesn't have this wine in Heaven, I'm not going.

- Bob & Gail Scanlon re: 2007 Carnival of Love

Some time ago, I had a few bottles of Mollydooker wine and fell in love. Each bottle was more delicious than the next - Two Left Feet, The Boxer, etc...

- Stacey Rabbino, Pennsylvania

WOW, WOW, WOW! I just had to send an email after having a spectacular evening enjoying 4 bottles of Mollydooker. We consumed one bottle of The Boxer, one of Blue Eyed Boy, one of Gigglepot and one of Carnival of Love over an evening business dinner in our home. My husband and I have been HUGE fans of any Mollydooker (and Shirvington before that) that we can get our hands on and were happy to share "the Love" with our friends, who I believe are now seeing the light on what GREAT wine really is, having sampled 4 of your ridiculously awesome wines..... So, my thanks to Sarah and Sparky for allowing their "Love" to shine through every bottle of Mollydooker!!! We can't wait to find a bottle of The Velvet Glove; we may slip into an indulgent happy coma.... We drive to Baltimore, Maryland (three hours) in order to buy any Mollydooker because you cannot get it here in Virginia.

- Melissa Rose, Virginia

We love your wines and enjoy introducing new people to them. A friend from work (who attended the Mollydooker Tasting in Scottsdale last year) had a wine tasting at his home last week and opened the entire Mollydooker range for about 75 co-workers and friends. The crowd favorites were the 2005/6 COL and 2005/6 EP and the 2006 BEB. However, they loved them all! We are looking forward to tasting the soon to be released 2007 vintage wines.

Thank you! We received our wine and can't wait to start drinking it!! I appreciate your excellent customer service and attention to detail. We opened a bottle of the new vintage last night with friends. We enjoyed The Boxer along with a bottle of Blue Eyed Boy and Two Left Feet. All were mighty delicious. – Laura Jacobo, California

I served your Blue Eyed Boy at a party last week. These people were serious wine drinkers – one was from Napa. Anyway, they loved it and have even told me at a later event that they really, really thought it was great. I'm so glad I was introduced to you and your wine. I hope to see you when you're in Houston. - Pam Sherrill, Texas

We can't wait to try the new stuff. We were lucky enough to taste the '07 Boxer in the barrel last year when in McLaren Vale and there was no question: it deserves a huge "wow." - Scott Ellison, California

We featured the 2006 Blue Eyed Boy in one of our wine clubs and it was the most reordered wine we had all year. It was wildly popular for its dark dramatic fruit, blueberry, cocoa powder and coconut. 2007 was a drought vintage in Australia, which has resulted in dark, deep concentrated wines, making the new release of the Blue Eyed Boy an absolutely luscious Shiraz, brimming with bold, cherry-plum spiced fruit. For those that are interested Parker was quite a fan of the 2006 giving it a 96 point rating. He has not yet scored the 2007 Mollydooker wines, but we have little doubt that he will be just as impressed with them as we are. - Prima Vini Wine Merchants, California

I absolutely love your wines, and wait for them to arrive at the local wine store. – Sandy Rockwell, Ohio

I love your wines and wish you well. - Steve Greenway, Michigan

I am fairly new to your web site, but not your wine. Ask your Tallahassee, FL retailer (Market Street) who the resident was that ran around town buying every bottle of Mollydooker she could find... that would be me, or my husband whom I sent on a search and recover mission as well. The supply in the wine closet is getting low... so I'm looking forward to the new release. – Madonna Finney, Florida

I have to tell you that when we got home last Monday Jay said he had the best day of his life! I can't tell you how thrilled he was to meet Sparky and to have such an awesome evening. He has been talking about it to everyone (as have both Mike and I). On Tuesday morning I went to work and told my boss, "I had a Mollydooker night and now I have a little hangover so don't ask me to do very much today!" Of course he wanted to know more so I HAD to tell him about our wonderful evening! – Nancy Hennen, New York

Sparky, I was with my son and family for your tasting in August at Mac's Steakhouse in Huntington, NY. We now drink your wines almost exclusively. Love the shake!!! We are signed up for your upcoming tasting in Palm Beach, FL. Can't wait - don't forget the Velvet Glove; I am bringing 6-8 serious wine lovers with me. See you soon – Vince Loscalzo, Florida

I wanted to contact you once again and let you know that we will be seeing Sparky at the Westin in Lombard, IL (Harry Caray's) on October 26. We are bringing a group of 12. Also, I don't know if you recall, but my company is doing a dinner at Lambert's in Austin Texas on October 11 for about 35 of our clients. We are serving the '06 Boxer with Texas barbecue. Had the '05 Carnival of Love as part of the 65 bottles of wine we opened on Saturday night for our 3rd Annual Wine Cellar Inventory Reduction Party. It was my fave of the evening, barely beating out the '02 Integrity. A Mollydooker wannabe – Russ Jones, Illinois

Thank you for inviting us to your wine tasting, we had an incredible experience. The Velvet Glove was more than we expected. Sparky was very informative as well as entertaining. We hope to see you next year on our Napa Valley visit, and we hope to see Sparky in Australia in the not so far future. Please keep us on your mailing list for future events. - Mark Seiden, New York

Thank you for a memorable evening at Willow in Arlington, Virginia. I am the guy who designed and built the Lund's wine cellar. They turned us on to your wines and we are lifetime fans!! Sparky did a bang up job at the party. I have not laughed that hard, that long in quite some time! Doing the Mollydooker Shake was so much fun. I tell all our clients about your wines, as all should. Thank you again. We hope you have a wonderful fall season and cannot wait to receive our order of your yummy outstanding wine. The only issue seems to be the rate in which it disappears from the cellar. Thank you. – Jason Kirkpatrick, Virginia

Dear Mom, you have a wonderful son, you must be proud. Yes, you have my permission to publish anything I send you. Every time I raise my left hand, and drink a stupendous glass of Mollydooker, we will be thinking of Sparky and yourself. The difficult question is, which glass of Mollydooker shall we drink, they are all so good. All of our best. - Mark & Rosemarie Seiden, NY

Sunaree and I changed the way we look at the world after our trip to Australia. We have been fortunate to have visited a small sampling of the world so far but really will carry this with us. Your showing of the working details of Mollydooker was more than I expected and enforced the labor of love I read and heard about prior to our visit. Thanks for having us in for lunch - I completely agree that the wine is perfect with our favorite simple foods. Cheese, almonds, fruit and bread, friends - a blessing. I believe I saw the craft at its very, very best. - Randy and Sunaree Bullock, Florida.

We love the Vale, because of its underground crown jewel, Mollydooker! They ship mostly to the States and it is by far our most favorite vineyard in the world now! Try to find them if you haven't tried them yet! We called ahead because you have to, to set up a tour, and got in touch with Sparky's (the wine maker) mum, Janet. This kind angel took us and Joe from San Diego on a tour of the plant, but that was only the beginning. The tour was fun and we learned a lot, but lunch and on was the most memorable/non memorable part of the day! Janet took us to her house on the property and started popping bottles of Mollydooker. The Giggopot Cab to start which we don't actually get in stx, it was awesome! I might have been happy just leaving after that, but not so close. Her husband (and later my snuggle partner) Leigh took us down to their wine cellar for a viewing while Janet picked fresh herbs from her garden for lunch. We had fresh bread, cheese, local olive oil and all sorts of nice things to eat, but the wine definitely dominated the meal! We tried the three best selling shiraz bottles they have, the Boxer, the Blue Eyed Boy (our favorite in stx) and the Carnival of Love, along with their white wine, the Violinist Verdelho, which is one of Sarah's favorites. We didn't just sample these bottles, we drank one of each, no joke, unbelievable. What a lunch! At 3:15 Janet begrudgingly left us to attend a luncheon with an employee who was leaving them, but as she left, she popped a bottle of the Velvet Glove Shiraz (look it up on the net if you don't know its importance, Robert Parker 99 points, $185 a bottle) and told the three of us to enjoy it til she came back and made us dinner. Heaven is definitely missing an angel and I don't think Leigh is gonna give her back. Unfortunately we had a tour at Hardy's at 4 also, but we promised to save some Velvet Glove for her and return for dinner. At Hardy's they made us wear hard hats. I think I gave mine back, but apparently I shouldn't have because we were only half way thru the Mollydooker portfolio. Leigh and Janet were waiting for us for dinner and Leigh whipped up an amazing spaghetti Bolognese for dinner, which I probably should've eaten more of, but really didn't save much room for because of all the wonderful wine! It turns out, they used to have a vineyard and a restaurant thirty years earlier that I'm devastated I wasn't born early enough to try. Actually they tell us there was only thirty seats and a, get this, a TWO YEAR WAIT to get in! That makes Bacchus in the winter sound like the most accessible place on earth. Well, they didn't disappoint us with anything. The conversation (at least the parts I remember) were scintillating and very informative and the wine complimented the whole night like we had always dreamed it would! We even got to try a bottle of Leigh's pinot noir that was awesome, but never released due to their ridiculously high standards (we promised we wouldn't tell anyone about this gem, so this doesn't go beyond this email, o.k.?). After polishing off every bottle in their portfolio, I did some snuggling with Leigh and passed out on the blue couch next to their German Shepherd puppy, Molly, til it was time to go home (at least that's how Sarah would tell the end of the story). Our eternal gratefulness to the whole Mollydooker family and our everlasting love for drinking and selling their product til the end of time! - Jody Starr and Sarah Ridgeway, Virgin Islands.

Thank you so much for showing me your new facility and teaching me the Mollydooker way of vineyard management, winemaking, and evaluating wine by mouth feel/fruit weight. It was a true highlight of my trip. It reconfirmed my belief that great wines starts with a focus on the vineyard followed by a clear vision and attention to detail in the winery. I hope our paths cross again as I truly enjoyed your company. I must admit I did not drink the Carnival Love while in AUS as you suggested. Instead I brought it home and shared it with the winemaker, owner and marketing team at the winery at which I work. I wanted to drink it with friends, discuss it, and get their feedback. As you and I talked about, Robert Sinskey Vineyards, where I work, has a different wine making objective than Mollydooker. Our objective is a wine that goes well with and enhances food. We pick sooner, have less extraction, generally higher acidity, and use less new oak. But everyone here appreciates a well made wine and they could not say enough about the quality of this wine, everything from its intense color, its rich fruit, and the integration of high levels of new oak seamlessly into the wine. The highest praise came from our wine maker, a profound Francophile. After savoring the wine for several minutes he asked its price. "$80.00." I said. He immediately came back with "I have spent a lot more for wines that cannot hold a candle to this." The highest praise I have heard for a wine from the new world. - Craig Provin, Robert Sinskey Vineyards

"To Jim and Gwen thank you so much for an absolutely wonderful time at a great restaurant and your magnificent home. It's always a joy to see Sparky and partake in his enthusiastic presentation for his wines (even though the wines speak for themselves). It seems that the love for Sparky, Sarah and Mollydooker Wines attracts a fun loving marvelous group of people." - Mike & Debbie Wolfe, Florida

"We had a great time with Sparky in West Palm Beach at the tasting; all of the wine is drinking beautifully. I picked up two more cases" - Vince Loscalzo, Florida

"We were so excited to receive our MollyDooker order on Fri (6th) September that we went from Goose Bumps to The Boxer to Carnival of Love in no time flat. Yummy indeed." - Jason Kirkpatrick, Virginia

"Sparky, thanks so much for one INCREDIBLE evening. I don't know how you can travel as much as you do and still have the kind of enthusiasm you showed Friday night. I appreciate you signing my bottles too. My wife has labeled me a certified wine geek! I was also surprised to see the ENTIRE tasting party ended up at the same restaurant... too funny. I'm sure you already realize, you and Sarah have really made quite an impact in the wine world... your passion and upbeat enthusiasm are infectious! I'm grateful for your visit and the opportunity to buy 3 cases." - Kirk Alexander, Florida

"We recently enjoyed a bottle of Carnival of Love, it may be the best wine I've ever had. Your customer service is great too!" - Gina Bishop, Illinois

"YAAAHOOOOOO, just got the news that we can now buy direct from you wonderful Aussies here in the state of Georgia. This is the best news we've had since gas prices dropped to $3.00 a gallon! I'll be spending my savings on Mollydooker Wines and putting them on my Christmas list also. PS: I have no reservations about letting everyone know how excited we are. You guys are the best. All I request is that Sarah and Sparky keep producing these brilliant wines." - Scott Sugg, Georgia

"That was an AMAZING Mollydooker event yesterday! Wow! I can't tell you all the unreal the feedback that I have got during the event and well after. A fantastic group of people, amazing setting and as Sparky would say in 2 words or less - MAGIC! To Sparky and the rest of the Mollydooker team - thank you!!!! The wine is beyond words - a true "smell the roses day." A Mollydooker event host - Lee Coleman, California

"What can I say, again I am speechless...Ok I will try...Thank you so much for your kindness and generosity. Safe travels and much love." A Mollydooker event host - Alan Kates, Tennessee

"My wife and I had a wonderful time at the Mollydooker tasting. Our table had a lot of fun and we met some great people. The food pairing was very well done and it was a real hoot to talk to Sparky and listen to his compassion for his success. Thank you, and I look forward to continuing our relationship." – Terry Eichorst, Texas

"I was able to taste the Mollydooker Wines and they were all wonderful. The Violinist (Verdelho) gave me a "Wow" moment. I expected the reds to be terrific, but that one caught me off guard. It was exceptional, the best expression of the varietal I've ever tasted. I do hope to see Sparky the next time he visits. He's doing great things." – Dale Robertson, Texas

"Maureen and I want to acknowledge your gift of the 2005 Love series magnum sets. Your note says so well what all of us who have been so blessed need to think about, and that is passing our blessings forward. So in that spirit, we pledge to pass the blessings of this wonderful gift forward by making these magnums available to a local charity in your name for auction. And so, as you say, these magnums will help bless some others as you have done for us." – Ray & Maureen Manza, Delaware

"The time we had with Sparky and Sarah this weekend was really great. In terms of the wine night, everyone I have spoken to has said that it was the most enjoyable and fun wine event that they have ever attended. To Sparky and Sarah, you guys are without a doubt two of the most energetic and entertaining people we have met in this wonderful industry. "Thank you again for having Adam and I at the Mollydooker event. It made his birthday a hit. The bottle of Velvet Glove that I ordered for his birthday was waiting for him when we got home that night so it was a perfect end to a perfect evening. We had such an amazing time and it was a true pleasure getting to meet you both. We hope you have plans to come back again." – Amy Mullins, Florida

"After seeing Sparky's presentation, my wife and I ordered two cases of wine. One of those cases was damaged by UPS in transit. I am writing to commend the Mollydooker staff in the United States for their prompt and professional attention in rectifying the situation. Additionally, Vintrust did an exceptional job in opening the communication lines between myself and Mollydooker in the US. We received a new case of wine to replace the damaged case in only two weeks. Every company should aspire to deliver the level of customer service and professionalism that I received from Mollydooker Wines and Vintrust. We are truly enjoying the wine, it is excellent!" – Mike Cesario, Event guest

"I broke down and opened a 2006 Carnival of Love two weeks ago, it was fantastic! So far I have never been disappointed with the Mollydooker Wines, just like them all for different reasons. Best wishes." – Janice Brown, California

November

G'day from the States! I wanted to send you a quick note to let you know how much we enjoy your wine, but also how much we love the name and how it now lives on in our house.....Back in September, we adopted a 12 week old puppy who was half boxer and half labrador retriever. Searching for a name that would be appropriate but also have some meaning, us crazy lefthanders decided to call our gorgeous little boxer pup - Molly Dooker. Little Molly is the best and we will always be reminded of one of our favorite wines when we call her funny little name. - Frank Waite, Rebecca Milam & Molly Dooker, NC

I was a Mollydooker fan before the tasting.....now I'm a zealot! Thanks! – Scott Keeler, Texas

I served Enchanted Path at our BIG Thanksgiving feast... along with some other wines, but the Enchanted was just that... ENCHANTING!!! We all loved it and appreciated your hard work. Thank you! – Janice Brown, California

We have been enjoying the Mollydooker wines at all of our wine events. We were at a friend's house party recently and opened up many of the wines to share. They were a big hit with everyone. I also donated several of the Mollydooker wines to our local charity event and they were the highest bid lot of wines at the event. We love all the Mollydooker wines, but of course the Carnival of Love and Enchanted Path are still our favorites. Our local Wine bar stocks these two as they know we are more likely to show up for appetizers/dinner if they have them in stock. – Chris and Randa Campbell, Arizona

Just a quick note to let you know that we drank the bottle of Velvet Glove a couple nights ago. All I have to say is.....WOW!!!!!!!!!! What an unbelievable wine!!!! It blew me away!! So thick and what a finish!!!! We drank the bottle of Carnival today in New Zealand at our end of tour picnic and, as I told Sparky, I am sure that all who tried it WILL be ordering some soon (myself included). Thanks again and talk to you soon!! – Scott Appleton, Guitar Tech, Def Leppard

I just received the replacement wine for the bottles damaged during transit. Thank you for your treatment of me, and I want to assure you that I am a very satisfied customer. I will certainly return to do business with Mollydooker and will recommend the company to all of my wine drinking friends and family. (My brother, Chris, is the winemaker at Marverick wines in the Barossa.) – Jerry Taylor, Missouri

I was given a bottle of Two Left Feet for my birthday by a visiting friend from USA. They had gone into a bottle shop in Sydney and asked for a good drop of red and this is what they were given. Being more a local to Hunter Valley, I had never heard of Mollydooker but the label sure looked interesting. After stowing it away for a couple of months, I cracked it open with friends. I have to say that we were completely won over. It was the most amazing red we have ever had – so much so that I had to look Mollydooker up so I could buy some more! I'll certainly be a loyal customer from here in and word of mouth will travel to anyone who will listen to me. I can't wait to sample the rest of your selection! – Michelle Smith, Australia

I received the wine. Excellent! I love your wines and think all of your wines have an special extra quality that sets them apart from most others. Bravo! Wonderful work! I have a small group of friends who love to get together to enjoy wine, and once we tasted your wines we have now planned a special Mollydooker night. We will have about six of your wines open for the lot of us to drool over. I can't wait till our 'Left Handed Tasting Party"! Thank you! – Jeff Hair, Ohio

I have been perusing your web site and came across your "Gift Pack - Party in a Box!" The idea sounds absolutely great. Your wines are fabulous!!!! – Jordan Ison, Toronto

We will never forget your kindness and thoughtfulness to a group of strangers...we still talk about the wonderful day we had with you in Australia. In my opinion the 2007 [Carnival of Love] is nearly as good if not better [than the 2006]....but who in their right mind would have any left in 25 years to find out! – Charlie Brown, Montana (referring to Wine Advocate review of 2006 Carnival of Love)

I cannot believe the incredible gift of two magnums of two of my favorite wines. I actually like the Enchanted Path a little more than our friend Robert Parker. My first experience with the 2005 vintage of both, served at the same time was that after about two hours of open time they seemed to display the same amount of velvetiness. Both up to the level of the Carnival of Love. – George Dubiecki, event host, California

Really wanted to express my thanks to the organization for working to get my wine order delivered. Not only does Mollydooker provide great wines but it also provides great service. – Laurence Edwards, Virginia

Sparky, this is such a wonderful testament to you and your family's business. That you would take the time to respond to my email means a great deal to me. We just returned from a wonderful Thanksgiving in Montana and wanted you to know that you were a part of that celebration we shared together with our family. We opened a bottle of Carnival and it was one the best wines we have ever experienced. And would you to know how excited we are to be able to order Mollydooker wines direct. Now all I have to beg for is that you keep up the outstanding work and producing your amazing wines. They have become our wines for everyday and the most special occasions. All the best to you and your family during the upcoming Holiday season and rest assured that Mollydooker will be a part of our holidays and beyond..... Cheers from our family to yours. – Scott Sugg, Georgia

We recently attended a tasting and can't wait for another one in the area to have some great wine with some great people. Your passion for life and for your work truly shows in your wines and I will look forward to drinking them for years to come. – Jason Lopez, California

The magnums arrived in perfect condition at a cool 64 degrees. The presentation box was very classy. You all do a great job at Mollydooker of packaging and presenting the wines. Coming from a sales background, your phone call to my house thanking us for our order was a pure touch of class. My wife and I listened to it 5 times and it made such a wonderful statement. Sarah & Sparky, I have really enjoyed receiving your newsletter updates. It makes me feel like I am a part of your wine family. Adam and I met you guys at a wine tasting dinner in NYC and we both still can't believe how down to earth and humble you both are. Considering your great success, I was expecting wine snobs, not two people who really love what they do. You are an inspiration to us all. I have been spreading the word to my friends on how great your wines are and I have been clearing up the misunderstanding that the Marquis Phillips wine is still made by Sarah- it's not "as good, but cheaper"... – Giao Le, Massachusetts

Yeah, I am really enjoying this year's libations! You all did a fantastic job. And I'm able to find them in more locations than last year, which makes enjoying them easier. It's easy to rave about the Mollydooker wines, which just keep getting better and better! I'm noticing people wanting to dine at my house more - it's either the cooking or your wines - I'm betting the latter! Keep 'em coming! – Richard Sexton, Ohio

I just fell in love with your wines. I am on a Mollydooker "intense training" program, if you will. I am in the trade, so when I suggest guests try Mollydooker wines it will not only confirm that I am their friend, but also that I don't keep all the great wines to myself. Dear Sparky, it was a great pleasure to meet you today. I have always enjoyed the wines that you and your wife produce, both as a consumer and retailer. Personally, hearing your story made me even more excited about your wines. You are a very engaging person, yet purposeful in your approach. Your description of the partnership with your wife from perfecting your wines, to understanding consumer perceptions and attention to detail on every aspect of your business, to the commitment to wearing your winemakers medallion was truly refreshing. Sometimes I listen to people in the wine business and there is a story, but it doesn't resonate as sincere. You, however, resonate a clear, sincere message that is all passion for what you do, not only as entrepreneur, but also for your family. As a former consumer goods COO, I would have given my left arm (sorry could resist the attempt at humor) to have a someone like you and your wife that understand the holistic approach to a product-the finest quality, a great package story and an uncompromising passion for perfection. – Gene Salerno, Great Grapes, Cary, NC

We just got back from a dive trip to St Lucia in the Caribbean. Linda and I just couldn't resist taking pictures of some of the spots we visited with a bottle of your 2007 Carnival of Love. Everyone on the dive boat thought it was a hoot that we would drag a wine bottle a couple of thousand miles to take a few photos. Here Carnival of Love is surrounded by his new drinking buddies the sea urchins. - Curt & Linda Lumsden, Virginia

My husband Tim and I, and our son and daughter-in-law, were sitting in the audience [at Wine Spectator's 2008 California Wine Experience] listening to Sarah speak. She was the highlight of the day!! We are the people you met at lunch and shared some of the enchanted path with on your way out. Meeting the two of you was the nicest thing that happened to the four of us Reilley's that week. We are huge fans forever and have loved turning our friends on to Mollydooker!!! Thank you for all that you do, and for being the lovely people that you are. P.S. Luke and Holly are beautiful!! Happy Holidays! – Diana & Tim Reilley, California

Mollydooker (the Australian equivalent of “Southpaw” – both Sparky and Sarah Marquis are left-handed) is by far the hottest, most ‘cultish’ up-and-coming Australian winery having crafted four wines to receive 99 Points from Robert Parker in just the last five years. Rarely has a winery hit the US with a splash as big as this one, and we can't remember the last time Robert Parker was so unabashedly in love with all of the wines from a single producer. – www.porthos.com

A huge Thank You to Tarlie and Janet and everyone at Mollydooker for a fantastic day. The tour was really interesting, and it showed just how much effort goes into making your incredible wines. And then we had that magnificent spread of cheeses and fruits etc, along with glasses of 3 different wines. We were blown away by Janet's hospitality and generosity. We were also really impressed by the friendly nature of all the Mollydooker staff that we encountered on the day. Every single one of them smiled and said hello. That's rare these days. For me, wine is more than just a drink. It's about the experience. So when you can combine such beautiful wine with a great day like we had, it's really memorable. – Nick Laycock, Australia
