

2008 The Violinist Verdelho

About This Wine

The 2008 Violinist has lovely, ripe, round fruit flavours of stone fruit, pineapple and citrus that keep you coming back sip after sip.

The Violinist is named for the days when Sarah was made to play the violin right-handed in school, so that she didn't poke her right-handed neighbours in the eye with her bow.

One third is barrel fermented and matured in 100% new American & French oak.

Wine Advocate

'The Lefty Series begins with the one white wine in the portfolio, the 2008 The Violinist Verdelho. Medium straw-colored, the fragrant nose offers up notes of baking spices, pit fruits, melon, and floral aromas. On the palate it has a creamy texture, ripe flavors, and excellent balance. Drink it over the next 12-18 months.' – 90 points, Jay Miller, erobertparker.com
